THE GENTILES IN UTAIL—Mr. James Brooks, of the New York Express, who is making an overland trip to the Pacific, and writing accounts of scenes and incidents to his paper, has in the Express of Friday an interesting description of his visit to Utah, and of the second trip to the Pacific, and writing accounts of scenes and incidents to his paper, has in the Express of Friday an interesting description of his visit to Utah, and of the above symptoms attend the disease, and at other times very few of them; but the liver is generally the organ most involved. The women, he says, are neither pretty nor fashionable. Occays, are neither pretty nor fashionable. Occays are neither pretty nor fashionable and the last 40 years as one of the most reliable, efficiency and the last 40 years as one of the most reliable, and the last 40 years as one of the most reliable, and the last 40 years as one of the most reliable, and the last 40 years as one of the most reliable, and the last 40 years as one of the most reliable, and the last 40 years as one of the most reliable, and the last 40 years as one of the last 40 years as one o named a bonnet; silks, if not satins, also intrude; but the great mass of the women bring their hats and robes from their mothers and great-grandmothers, and the result is a head gear representative of Swede, of Scot, of Celt, of Yankee, the patterns, perhaps of tengenerations behind, with scoots of Quaker formation tions behind, with scoots of Quaker formation and umbrellas of Italian conception. Mr. Brooks had the satisfaction of hearing a sermon from Brigham, who is described as a goodlooking man, now of seventy years, resembling much Tom Benton, the Missouri Senator, in his latter days. Mr. Brooks speaks of him as a man of all sorts of ability whether as preacher, prophet, governor, lanker, farmer and railroad builder, but it appears he is not much longer to have undisputed religious dominion.

Sections of the bladder, camp dysentery, affections of t The Episcopalians have planted a church in his capital. The Roman Catholics are already there. The Methodists are about to invade Utah with one of their prodigious camp-meetings, assembling Methodists there from the Missouri, at Omaha, to San Francisco, on the Pacific. They threaten to capture Brigham and all his hosts. Brigham, generously or tauntingly, offered them his huge new tabernacle, holding 13,000 people, with its galleries, new, and the big organ, perhaps the biggest in the world, to be thrown in, for their great love feast; but they declined the taint, or the taunt, and they turn up in tents. in the open fields, under a cloudless sky. The grasshoppers, which have hitherto been greater enemies of the Mormons than the Gentiles, are being devoured by the gulls, so that Utah is likely to be freed from the pest .- Baltimore Sun. Mr. Toombs, of GA.—The New York Tribune's correspondent travelling in the South having "interviewed" Mr. Toombs, of Georgia, gives to that paper a resume of his opinions, which our readers know are as extreme as they can be. They are exceedingly piquant, too, and make up the most interesting letter the correspondent has yet written. Mr. Toombs must have been very frank, indeed. The correspondent thought him a little rough, considering that he (the correspondent) had not assailed him. But notwithstanding this, Mr. Toombs invited him to his house to tea, where he was treated with an elegant, graceful and bountiful hospitality that surprised him, while Mr. Toombs, he says, "instead of the bitter political partisan became the genial host, and talked in the most entertaining manner of his travels abroad, of his residence in Paris, of English politics and statesmen," etc. Had the correspondent understood Southern character this would not have surprised him. In his social and domestic relations Mr. Toombs is a true southerner; a very different man from Ben Wade, for instance. Mr. Toombs is a "fire-eater," and will so live and die; but his ultraism is so well understood that it don't involve the South.—Richmond Dispatch.

A SINGULAR OPERATION. -The Wilmington (N. C.) Journal says: "A very skilful and successful medical operation-that of the transfusion of blood from a lamb to a human bodywas performed in this city on last Friday afternoon by Drs. J. F. King and J. E. Winants. The ALEXANDRIA, VA. subject was a colored man, an inmate of the City Hospital, who has been suffering for some time past and who had lately seemed in danger of death from mere exhaustion. When laid upon the table he was too weak to talk, and appeared to have but few hours of life left in NING and CARVING in our line. him. When his vein was opened but one drop of blood fell from it. The carotid artery of the lamb was opened and the blood was forced from thence, by the palpitation of the animal's heart, through a small glass tube into the patient's cephalic vein. In this way about eight ounces of blood was conveyed from the lamb to the man. The operation was entirely satisfactory in its results, and the patient is now doing | Looking Glasses, very well.

the progress of a divorce case tried in Cincinna- reasonable prices. ti a few days ago, some disclosures were made which must be highly interesting to any foolish young women who have allowed themselves to be led into corespondence with strangers through the introductory medium of newspaper advertisements. It appeared that the defendant in this case, who was accused of infidelity and desertion, had advertised in the Waverly Magazine for correspondence with young ladies between seventeen and twenty years of age, "with a view to matrimony," de scribing himself as a gentleman of ample fortune, and a large box of letters and photographs of young women who had answered his advertisement was produced in the court room. These were examined with great interest by the jury, reporters, and others, and it is very probable that some of the letters may be published for the amusement of the public. It was shown that in one instance, at least, the raseal had proceeded so far as to contract an engagement of marriage with a young woman of respectable family who had answered his advertisement. although he had a wife and child living at the time. How many more such cases there were cannot be known. If girls belonging to respectable families will be so inexcusably foolish as to enter into correspondence with men of whom they know nothing except from the description they give of themselves in advertisements, they must not except much sympathy.

A CURIOUS CUSTOM. - In the burgher society of Castile Epiphany eve is devoted to a curious ceremony. Each little social circle comes together in a house agreed upon. They take mottoes of gilded paper and write on each the name of some one of the company. The name of the ladies are thrown into one urn, and those of the ladies are thrown into one urn, and those of the cavaliers into another, and they are Chloral, Hyposulphite Soda, Nitrate Ammonia, drawn out by pairs. These couples are thus Carbolic Acid, Bromide Ammonium, Chlorocondemned by fortune to intimacy during the form, &c. year. The gentleman is always to be at the orders of the dame, and to serve her faithfully in every knightly fashion. He has all the duties and none of the privileges of a lover, unless it be the joy of those "who stand and wait." The relation is very like that which so astonished M. de Gramont in his visit to Piedmont, where the cavalier of service never left his mistress in public and never approached her in pri-

Under these circumstances it will searcely be wondered at that NATTANS' CRYSTAL DIS-COVERY should have met with such extraordinary success. It is the only preparation furnishing a safe and reliable restorer for the hair; absolutely free from all poisonous and deleterious matter and without sediment, and thousands above thousands have availed themselves of it, not simply because it restores the color of the hair, but because it supplies nourishment. It feeds the roots of the hair, so that where decayed it becomes vigorous and healthy again. From all sections of the country orders and testimonials are received daily, speaking in the highest terms of its qualities as the only preparation that ever gave entire satisfaction. Those who have used CRYSTAL DISCOVERY will not use anything else; but U. S.
